

Agenda at a Glance

Affected people must be at the center of humanitarian action		The humanitarian system must realign to build on local capacities		We must collaborate for better resilience
WEDNESDAY 19 OCTOBER		THURSDAY 20 OCTOBER		FRIDAY 21 OCTOBER
0830-0900	Registration	0830-0900	Recap on previous day	Recap on previous day
0900 - 0945	Welcome and Opening of Pacific Resilience Week	0900-1030	National Government Perspectives: National disaster authorities and regional frameworks	Coordination of Capacity Development: Improving collaboration for disaster resilience
0945-1015	BREAK	1030-1100	BREAK
1015-1100	Affected people at the center of humanitarian action: a panel presentation and discussion	1100-1230	Realigning the Pacific Humanitarian Team (PHT) approach: tailoring regional support to national systems	Bridging the Humanitarian/Development divide: specific linkages and approaches to effective collaboration.
1100-1230	Community participation and strengthening the role of traditional support systems: using lessons learned to take us towards more effective collaboration during emergencies.
1230-1330	LUNCH
1330 - 1500	Protection: Improving inclusion and accountability to affected people	1330-1500	Regional to national: realigning regional cluster support to build on existing local structures and capacities.	Capacity Development for Response Effectiveness: A coordinated approach for effective use of simulation exercises
1500-1530	AFTERNOON BREAK
1530-1700	Simultaneous Stakeholders Group Discussions: NDMO Donors Civil Military Red Cross NGOs JPO Red Cross Government	1530-1700	Information Management : conducting initial assessments during emergencies. An interactive workshop	Private Sector engagement: harnessing private sector capacity to strengthen resilience Closing address
1700	END OF DAYTIME SESSIONS
1800 - 1900	Welcome reception hosted by OCHA, sponsored by TOLL Logistics. (Banyan Room).			